KEY TO A MYSTERY.

There is nothing really mysterious in the fact that the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S. is the largest and strongest company in the world, and does the largest business.

The reason is that the management of the Society has been always in the interests of policyholders.

The Democrats next year will have the Government and the House of Deputies, but the Republicans will still have a majority in the Senate. In case, however, of an Assembly of both Houses of Congress the Democrats will be in a majority.

(Per Havas Agency.)

Lisbon, 10th—The King and Queen left last night for Madrid, to see the Columbus Exhibition there.

Berlin, 10th—The Prussian Landtag was opened yesterday.

The Speech from the Throne announces a deficit in the Budget of 42 million marks, but Government hopes to restore equilibrium by important financial reforms.

Lisbon, 10th Last night, when the King and Queen were leaving for Madrid they received a hostile demonstration.

Deputy Abreu led the mob which followed the Royal pair to the station, uttering seditious cries. The police arrested the Deputy and nine other persons.

Madrid, 10th—The King and Queen of Portugal were cordially received on their arrival here to-day.

Rio, 10th (evening)—The Chambers have voted 30,000 contos of reis for military preparations.

(To the "Prensa".)

Carmaux, 9th.—The miners here have held a meeting and declared that they had nothing whatever to do with the explosion in Paris.

Paris, 9th.—The judicial inquiry about the Panama Canal shows that there is no ground for a criminal prosecution of the Directors.

London, 9th.—The working men held another meeting yesterday on Tower Hill, and some very violent speeches were delivered.

NewYork, 9th—Dreadful storm raging in the Atlantic.

The agricultural States of Illinois, Wisconsin, and others which were Republican voted for Cleveland: also the mining and agricultural States of the North-west. The Southern States stuck to their Democratic principles. The Dems. will have a majority of at least fifty in the House of Representatives. There are no certain data about the Senate as yet.

BUENOS AYRES WESTERN RAILWAY.

We received yesterday the report for the year ending June 30th 1892, and have to congratulate the shareholders on the declaration of a dividend of 2½ per cent for the year. It will be remembered that the Rosario, Central Argentine and Pacific lines have been unable to declare any dividend, owing to the depression of the period and the competition of bullock-carts (if Mr. Cooper's statements be true.)

The Western line works a system of 338 miles viz:—

	miles
To Trenquelauquen	278
Branches	60
	338

The line was for many years the best in South America, giving from 9 to 10 per cent net profit on cost of construction. This was in the time of the brothers Thomas and John Allen, but after their death affairs were not so prosperous.

The nominal capital is £9,600,000, but this includes the sections let at fixed rent to the Central Argentine and Great Southern lines. The official, government report for 1891 which we published on Oct. 24th puts down the capital at £6,000,000 sterling, which is about £18,000 per mile.

The report now before us shews that the receipts for the year were—

Earnings of line	436,500
Leased lines	144,500
Total receipts	581,000
Working expenses	197,500
Interest on loans	310,500
Total outlay	508,000
Net proceeds	73,000

This balance suffices to pay a dividend of 2½ per cent on the ordinary share capital, amounting to £2,500,000 sterling.

The traffic returns for 1892 compare with 1891 as follows:—

	1891	1892
Passengers	1,855,000	2,247,000
Goods, tons	744,000	773,000
Gross receipts, £	485,300	436,500
Expenses	251,800	197,500
Net earnings	233,500	239,000
Train-miles run	1,172,000	1,117,000

The line is now managed with great economy, working-expenses being as 45 per cent of receipts, against 52 per cent last year. There was a considerable reduction of tariff, the average receipts per passenger shewing only 14 pence, against 20 pence in the preceding year: in like manner each ton of goods paid only 86 pence against 96 pence in 1891.

This reduction, however, while helping the country through the crisis caused no loss to the Co, for we find the net earnings per train-mile run were:—

In 1891 ..... 47 pence
„ 1892 ..... 51 „

The second half of the financial year, that is January—June 1892, has given much better results than the first half. The net revenue available for dividend was earned as follows:—

July-Dec. 1891	4,500
January-June 1892	70,250
12 months	74,750

If the remainder of the current year prove as good as the 6 months down to June 30th the net earnings for the calendar year will be £140,500, or 5¼ per cent on the share capital. This line will thus be on a par with the G. Southern, and far beyond all the rest of River Plate railways.

The Board passes a well-deserved encomium on Mr. Roberts, general manager, and the public of Buenos Ayres fully endorses the same.

RAILWAYS IN ARGENTINA.

The report for 1891 furnishes us many materials for study and comparison. The number of train-miles run compares with earnings thus:—

	Train-miles	Receipts per train mile $ cts
Great Southern	2,115,000	8·16
B. Ay. & Rosario.	2,020,000	4·55
Cent. Argentine	2,120,000	3·33
Western B. Ayres	1,105,000	6·78
Pacific	825,000	3·54
Ensenada	570,000	3·88
Cent. Northern	1,350,000	1·90
Arg. G. Western.	460,000	5·66
East Argentine	95,000	1·25
S. Fe Colonies	650,000	3·75
Other lines	1,590,000	2·30
Total	12,900,000	4·45

Judged by the gross earnings per train-mile, that is per mile run by locomotive, the Great Southern Railway outstrips all the rest, the Western of Buenos Ayres coming second, and the East Argentine last of all.

From a shareholder's point of view it is more interesting to ascertain the net earnings per train mile run. We need hardly say that the Central Northern, East Argentine and some other lines earned nothing at all, their expenses being more than their receipts. The paying lines were:—

	Net earnings per train-mile. currency pence
Gt. Southern	4·20 = 56
Western Bs. Ayres	3·26 = 43
B. Ayres and Rosario	1·96 = 26
Ensenada	1·60 = 22
Central Argentine	0·60 = 8
Arg. Great Western	0·50 = 7
Santa Fe Colonies	0·52 = 7

Taking all the lines of Argentina in the aggregate we find that the net earnings per train-mile run in 1891 were $1 50 cents currency, say 20 pence English money, or little more than one-third of the ratio on the Great Southern line.

AUSTRALIA AND ARGENTINA.

One of our Quilmes readers writes us a long letter on some (insane) statistics taken from a paper called the American Agriculturist, which have led him to the very erroneous conclusion that Argentina is much ahead of Australia in pastoral wealth, agriculture &c. Of course there is no comparison between the two countries, the advantages being altogether on the side of Australia, as appears from the following official returns:—

	Argentina	Australia
Area sq. miles.	1,212,000	3,145,000
Acres tilled	8,200,000	13,800,000
No. of sheep	76,450,000	114,270,009
„ „ cattle	22,870,000	9,300,000
Revenue £	5,500,000	29,200,000
Rural products £	40,050,000	62,200,000

The wool exports of Argentina reach 152,000 tons unwashed, equal to 51,000 tons washed: those of Australia 210,000 tons unwashed, equal to 115,000 tons washed. The clip of Australia is valued at £20,000,000, that of Argentina at £8,000,000 sterling. The total wealth of Australia in 1888 was 1,136 millions sterling (by official returns) equal to £290 per inhabitant; that of Argentina in 1892 is 480 millions sterling (see Handbook) or £110 per inhabitant.

LATEST FROM RIO.

Rio, Nov. 1st.

It is reported that a contract is contemplated with Councillor Lima Duarte and Dr. Lacerda Werneck for importing frozen meat from the River Plate.

The supply of fresh beef for this city was very limited on Thursday and Friday, the number of beeves slaughtered being 80 less than the average number on Wednesday and 100 less on Thursday.

An old negro, 107 years of age, a house servant in a family residing in this city, became so enraged at the teasing of the children some days ago that he attacked them with a stick and a kitchen knife. One little boy was killed and a little girl was somewhat injured.

A letter was published in the Jornal a few days ago, written by an officer of the Almirante Barroso, in which attention is called to the large number of war vessels building in English shipyards for the Argentine Government. Including torpedo boats they number over twenty, three or four of which are powerful steel cruisers.

The elections in this city on Sunday for municipal intendente, aroused very little interest outside the personal followings of the candidates. Although there are about 28,000 electors in this city, only a little over 6,000 cast their votes.

According to the Jornal do Commercio of the 26th ult. the net loss of the municipal council in supplying this city with fresh beef amounted, between April 12th and October 6th, to $300,000. The unpaid accounts, says the Jornal, amount to over $1,000,000.

We are glad to see that Congress is disposed to do something for the poor planter. Giving him reduced rates for his implements and machinery may not be so very important in itself, but it helps. Besides, the planter is not proud. Small favors thankfully received. Loaning him money on reduced rates and favorable terms, importing laborers for him, exempting him from taxation, giving him special facilities on railroads, enacting special laws to protect his property, granting interest guarantees on railways and factories built for his special benefit—these are all little attentions on the part of the Government which show that the poor man is not forgotten.

A few nights ago, according to the Gazeta de Noticias, a poor man named Manuel Joaquim Leite went to a police delegado for a certificate with which to obtain admission to the Misericordia hospital. Seeing that he was very ill, the police official at once gave him the paper asked for, and called a police carriage to carry him to the hospital. Later on the poor fellow came back, saying that the hospital authorities would not receive him, telling him that he was not ill and should return home and get someting to eat, as there was nothing the matter with him but weakness in the legs. On going into the corridor a few moments later, Manuel suddenly fell dead, and was then taken to the morgue.

The Royal Mail steamer Trent arrived here on the morning of the 27th and was ordered to Ilha Grande, notwithstanding the announcement that free entry would be given to vessels leaving British ports after the 4th ult., and the further fact that she had been admitted at Pernambuco and Bahia, Through some official neglect the proper orders had not been given at Santa Cruz, and the officials there were not thoughtful enough to telegraph to the port health authorities for information. On arriving at Ilha Grande Capt. Milner found a telegram awaiting him, instructing him to return to Rio at once. The steamer lost twelve hours by this by-play, the passengers for Rio were delayed in landing and a considerable additional expense was incurred.

According to Dr. Fureuim Werneck the municipal revenue of this city last year was $6,100,000 and the expenditure $4,800,000. The funded debt of the city is he says $3,200,000.

Mr. Henry Lowndes', Conde de Leopoldina, offer to make surrender of all his property to his creditors has been legally ratified. We hope Mr. Lowndes will have become convinced that "high finance" in republican Brazil has its drawbacks.

Dr. Felisbello Freire presented another amendment to the banking project on the 27th, in which he proposes the acquisition of the Banco da Republica, paying for it with apolices. If the securities of that bank are rated only at their present market value, perhaps the business might turn out well, though we fail to see why the state should be called upon to buy out a badly-crippled banking corporation, paying nominal value for depreciated shares and assuming responsibility for all its liabilities. It is an operation which would not reflect much credit on the financial ability of the Government.—Rio News.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

A FEW REMARKS.

(From our own Correspondent)

London, Oct. 7th

This is one of the occasions in which the pen succumbs to the scissors; and both implements have to battle with the wires. I cannot tell how much you may know of the particulars of Lord Tennyson's death, or of the "Military Ride" and the victory of the Austrians over the Germans, or of the International Boat Race on the Seine, in which the French scullers gave the London rowing club a jolly good licking. All I can do is to send you separately the choicest morsels from the London press on those matters, as well as some interesting reports and facts connected with River Plate railways and finance.

As for the late Lord Tennyson, you will know long before you receive this that his body rests in Westminster Abbey. But you have not seen, as I have to-day, the October sun streaming through the crimson and purple panes of the abbey windows, while the organ seemed to rehearse on its own account solemn anthems for the dead. You have not seen the workmen prising the first flagstone in Poet's Corner to prepare his grave. It lies not far from Geoffroy Chaucer's and close to Browning's. And you bet you know nothing of Buffalo Bill's views on the German military ride, or of the Church Congress at Folkestone.

It is rather hard on the bishops and parsons and scholars and on what they call the "higher criticism," that the Evening Standard should say to-night, that by very much the most interesting paper read at the Church Congress was one by Lady Frederick Cavendish on "drink." The particular interest of Lady Frederick's remarks consisted in the fact that they were mostly directed towards our national vice, or as the Daily Telegraph has it, our "national shame" not only amongst the people in general but amongst women. And not only women, but amongst titled women and great ladies apparently amongst Lady Frederick Cavendish's own "set." She asks in her exegesis:

"Is the word 'pick-me-up' known only among men? Are 'nips' at eleven o'clock in the morning, or after dinner, a thing unheard of among ladies? Are 'B. and S.'s' never resorted to by women?" Leaving these queries to answer themselves, her ladyship went on to tell of "a young lady who could never get through the exertions of a London season" without regular resort to "a cordial," which she kept handy in a corner of her dressing-box. Lady Frederick also expressed the amazement with which she first heard of a lady at tea time calling for a glass of champagne under the amusing euphemism of a "white cup." Against "a new, a very new, fashion among young ladies," to wit, their "accompanying gentlemen to the smoking-room after dinner," her ladyship utters a strong—but we think not too strong—protest. Such a practice is as censurable as the increasing habit of women of getting into the smoking compartments among a lot of strange men on the railway. But if the young women of the present day are bad, the old ones, according to her ladyship's experience, are often worse. At all events, she has heard of elderly ladies who were in a chronic state of alcoholism, often bordering on delirium tremens. Again, on the reckless use of such drugs as chloral, chlorodyne, and morphia, the speaker uttered a timely warning.

* * * *

I say nothing about Tennyson, because the papers are full of him and we are already sick of the usual extravagant praise which people, apparently frightened of death, heap on the dead. Tennyson lived to be a conservatively inclined peer; but some of us are old enough to remember the day when he was a radical and bohemian, the scoff of the Times and of stiff and starched critics, and of some who were not stiff or starched, like the first Lord Lytton. You will see what Hazlitt said of him, and I can myself recollect in the "fifties" old ladies in Westmoreland telling me with bated breath that Mr. Tennyson, instead of coming to see them spent his time at road-side "pubs." Tennyson was saved from becoming a thorough bohemian by two things—a fortunate choice of wife, and a small and somewhat diluted drop of Norman blood of which he was prouder perhaps than of his literary talent. Scott, Congreve and many other word-weaving men had the same failing. We all know our "In Memoriam." We all love Tennyson; and some of us all the better because he appreciated his pipe and nature's scenes and company better than the frivolity of being lionised like Browning at dinner-parties; but it is quite time in this country that the swarming of ecstatic nobodies upon the still warm corpses of literary celebrities should be discouraged. An apotheosis of that kind is not needed; except it be to sell a newspaper.

* * * *

Now, about Buffalo Bill. He guesses the German military ride was a very creditable performance; but not quite a fair test of endurance in man and horse, when arrangements were made all along the road for human comforts and dosing the animals with morphia and brandy B. B., does not believe in "blood." It is all very well, he says, but it cannot hold its own against wiry bone and muscle; and here, the Chronicle interviewer, says "the Colonel warmed up with enthusiasm about the staying qualities of his own Texas and Mexican bred ponies." The Colonel, after enumerating all the mighty fests of horsemanship accomplished by American officers in the war in the U. States said—"Guess you are right there. Be at the cavalry of Europe hollow. Believe me Sir, that your European cavalry will never amount to much until refashioned on the American model" . . . and here Mr. Nate Salisbury, who had dropped in to B. B's tent, offered to lay a wager that with fifty of his master's cowboys armed with revolvers he would undertake to dispose effectually of twice that number of the most highly trained cavalry men in all Europe, armed merely with "white weapons" (lances and sabres). This wager Colonel Cody himself seemed inclined to back.

The Colonel is about to take a long and last farewell of us. He and his gauchos and cossacks and buffaloes are packing up for Chicago.

* * * *

In regard to the hiding we got on "our own element"—although only Seine water—some account for it by one of our men slipping from his slide; some say that the London rowing club men are not our best man; and others think that the men, before slipping from his slide, must have "caught a microbe." But the best thing we can do is to say nothing, work harder and more scientifically and cease to think we are invincible. The French had their lesson, and have profited. With a spirited and advanced government we should have profited long since by the lesson to France. Not to speak of ironclads, the next thing will be that the French will beat us at "criquet" or at "golfé."

Now faith, just one word. The German horse that came in second in the Military Ride is a mare—an Irish mare, bought only last year by Baron von Reitzenstein in Ghent. She was in a terrible condition when she hobbled past the winning post. The Daily Chronicle is very severe on the sufferings of this mare. The Standard thinks that, had the race taken place in England, the Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals would have interfered. But the ride was only an experiment, and, it is said, first suggested by the Emperor. Another time the arrangements will be better. The Germans take their hiding good-humouredly, and account for it rationally enough for one thing, by the fact that their men had all the heavy work at the end in the hilly country in Austria when men and horses were tired out, whilst the roads leading into Berlin are comparatively flat and easy. The Austrian and Hungarian men are also some pounds, if not stones, lighter than the Germans, and it is well known they are better riders and perhaps better mounted.

"Mr. "Carnegie" says the Chronicle, has just presented the burgh of Ayr with ten thousand pounds, towards the building of a public library; and, in acknowledging the freedom of the burgh with which he was presented, he said that he felt more than ever bound to devote to the service of others his surplus wealth and spare time, in the manner which seemed most likely to produce the greatest good to the masses of the people, from whom such wealth comes to its possessors, only as a trust to be passed through their hands, as administrators. It is said that many men have two sides, the one which they turn to the public, the other by which they are known at home. Mr. Carnegie is of this class. There is the Mr. Carnegie who appears in England as the generous capitalist, as the ardent friend of the masses, as an apostle of democracy, and a subscriber towards the expenses of workingmen candidates for Parliament. In the United States, on the other hand, he is regarded as the typical, autocratic, grinding capitalist, as a man wholly without sympathy for the working class, as the hardest of hard masters to the men in his employ. Strikes are chronic in the numerous works with which he is connected, and that portion of the masses from whose labours the surplus wealth came into his possession have lately been put down with iron severity, and the works have now been entirely closed, until the workmen agree to unconditional surrender. We can imagine the ironical laughter which the report of his speech at Ayr will excite among the men who have worked for him in the United States."

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

THE INTERVENTOR'S MANIFESTO.

The manifesto issued by the Interventor to the people of Santiago on the occasion of the dissolution of the Chambers is a remarkable document, and we very much regret that, owing to its extreme length, we are unable to reproduce it. Dr. Costa begans by stating that the instructions he received from the President are so clear that there can be no doubt as to the object of his mission, which is simply to study the Santiago situation and find out if the overthrown authorities had been properly constituted. The decree of intervention does not necessarily imply that the overthrown authorities are to be reinstated. The overthrow of the authorities points to a profound perturbation between the rulers and the ruled. If intervention implied reinstatement then the people would lose all hope of political regeneration. Dr. Costa then goes on to shew that the form of Government has been so tampered with in Santiago that it can no longer be considered as republican. For 31 years the Government was in the hands of the tryant Ibarra. In 1831 Santos Coronel sold the Government to del Palacio for 200 bags of tobacco. Ibarra on his deathbed bequeathed the Government to Rosas. The Government became hereditary in the Ibarra family; elections were called "pro forma." In this way it passed into the hands of Carranza, and the Taboadas, all relatives of Ibarra. The dominion of the Taboadas came to an end under President Avellaneda, and several Governors succeeded, until in 1886 Mr. Rojas was elected. He was Senator at the time in Congress and in his place Don Maximo Ruiz was raised to the Governorship. Rojas succeeded Ruiz, and Ruiz was to succeed Rojas.

Dr. Costa then examines Rojas's election which, he says was null. He then deals in a similar way with the legislature and concludes with the following decree:—

Art. 1.—The Executive and Legislative powers not having been constituted in accordance with the constitution of the province and republican principles cannot be reinstated.

Art. 2—The people shall therefore proceed to elect a governor, vice-governor and a legislature.

Art.—Let this be published, etc.

The news from Corrientes is somewhat alarming. People are are arming, for no very pacific purpose. The Governor of the province has several armed bodies of men under the command of officers of the line. We trust that there will be no row. So far there have been no revolutionary symptoms. The people are certainly not very fond of their Governor, althongh H.E. is very fond of them and perhaps fonder of looking after their welfare.

TRIUMPH OF FREE TRADE.

Mr. Editor,

Of all disagreeable things which may have bean said about North Americans residing in Buenos Aires, you have capped the climax in saying that they are all republicans.

I have the pleasure of knowing a good number, besides myself, who would have voted the Cleveland-Stevenson ticket, if they had been at home, and who are now rejoicing in the success of that ticket, on a democratic free trade platform.

SKATING RINK.

Mr. Editor,

Kindly allow me through the medium of your esteemed paper to suggest that a small quantity of finely powdered chalk or rosin be sprinkled on the floor of the Skating Rink, to ensure a better grip and add to the comfort of skaters in general.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

This is a holiday. We take it for granted that most of our readers are aware of the agreeable fact; but they may not have fastened their minds on another fact, viz, the unprecedented lot of amusements of all kinds on the day's card: Regatta at the Tigre: Horrocks and Fulford's excursion thereto; Flower Corso at Palermo; Races at Belgrano; Polo at ditto; Swiss Rifle Shooting at ditto; cricket at ditto and Lomas; Spanish Romeria at South Barracas, and pic-nics and all kinds of side-dishes at sundry other places. Even Sir Boyle Roche's bird could n't get through such a bill of fare, and we're not going to try. We wish every soul in town a day of undiluted enjoyment.

The Senate of the Nation no-quorumed again yesterday. Bravo! Encore!

We feel much indebted for the invitation to visit the fine new river steamer Helios, in the South Dock, to-morrow.

In yesterday's Beneficencia Lottery Number 16566 pulled of the $20,000; 3638 $2,000; 7370 $1,000.

The sons of Saint Crispin remained in a striking attitude yesterday. They refuse to give way, and their "patrones" are in the same frame of mind. If De Boots were alive he might arbitrate: but he's not.

We are glad to learn that the U. S. Minister Mr. Pitkin is completely restored to health and will shortly return to his post here.

We are promised a synopsis of the plot of "Ours" for publication next week.

We were favored yesterday with Mr. Peuser's tasteful Almanac for 1893. The text and engravings are very fine. There is a number of poetical pieces and short stories—but it is a pity that Gen. Mayer's story was not omitted.

In the Cricket Match between the Flores Athletic Club, and the B. A. and Rosario Railway Club to be played today at Belgrano, the following players compuse the team for Flores: Messrs. J. Macadam, Murphy, Dillon, Watson, Sutherland, Avery, Cassels, Baugh Rousby, Hall, and Boyd. Play will commence at 11 a.m. sharp.

The Nacion, the Prensa and the STANDARD formed a Triple Alliance yesterday. All had articles rejoicing at the Free Trade victory in Uncle Sam's big country.

There was a wonderful demonstration in Dublin on the 6th ult, the anniversary of Parnell's death. Nearly every man and boy in Ireland wore a sprig of ivy in his button-hole; and in future the day is to be known as Ivy Day.

Another bit of news from old Ireland is that the famous Belfast shipbuilders, Messrs Hartland and Wolff, are building for the White Star line what will be the biggest and fastest vessel ever floated: the "Gigantic" of 19,000 tons and a speed of twenty-seven knots per hour!! Ireland for ever!

The publication of the programme of the Tableaux Vivants and concert for St. John's church organ on Monday night had an immediato effect on the sale of boxes and tickets yesterday; and we strongly recommend all who mean to be there to look alive, or they won't be there; at least comfortably seated.

We remind friends that flowers to adorn the chapel of the new Protestant Cemetery at the Chacarita, on the occasion of the opening service, which will be held on Sunday next, at 3.30 p.m., can be sent to Messrs. Eyhern and Muller, Rivadavia 4515, or to the Chapel.

Look for the advertisement in another column headed "First Methodist Episcopal Church," and if it does not make your mouth water and make you count over your musty dollars, why, we'll henceforth take a back-seat in the Editorial Bus.

The translation of Carlyle's work on Francia, the Paraguayan Dictator, by Dr. Luis Drago, has been published in pamphlet form. We received a copy yesterday, and have much pleasure in recommending it to our readers.

The Immigration returns for October put us in good spirits; 6161 people arrived and only 1204 turned their backs on the country, leaving a balance in its favour of 4957. Since the 1st of January the balance in favour of the country is 30,179. Hurrah! We're getting back to the good old times.

News for the Tucuman sugar "ring." "A new variety of sugar cane is reported to have been discovered on the Upper Niger. It is said to be of gigantic size, and very rich in sugar. Moreover, it differs from the ordinary sugar cane in possessing seeds, from which the plant can be raised. The discovery confirms the supposition of botanists that the common seedless sugar cane, now cultivated from slips, is descended from a wild flowering and seed-bearing cane."

There was a rather formidable mistake in the cablegram three weeks ago to the effect that the Corporation of Liverpool had refused the freedom of the city to the Grand Old Man who now "runs" the British Empire. Quite the contrary. They gave it to him unanimously. See Liverpool Mercury of October 8th.

Buffalo Bill sold off all the horses of his Wild West Show in London last month. There was keen competition all through; but the most exciting incident of the day was the sale of the four-in-hand mule team belonging to the Deadwood Coach. Colonel Cody himself addressed the assemblage as to these before driving them round, and claimed for them that they represented the "most historical team in the world, as they have drawn more royal personages than any other four-in-hand, and on one occasion, during the Jubilee year, they had behind them four Kings and the Prince of Wales." He offered them with harness, but without trap (as the Deadwood Coach was not included in the sale), to any one in want of a fine turnout. The bidding began at a hundred guineas, and was followed immediately by one for two hundred. By tens and twenties it advanced to three hundred and eighty, at which the team was sold.

In Montevideo they are all in the same frame of mind as Wilkins Micawber Esqre: "id est" waiting for some fresh Presidential financial scheme to turn up in the shape a little or big Bill of the usual two-and-two-are-ten kind so popular in these glorious latitudes. No doubt such a Bill will soon make its appearance on the other side of Jordan.

The meat canned last month in the Rural Society on the Freire system was opened on Wednesday with enough formality to install a Lord Chancellor of England, or a Lord Mayor of London. Some of it was found to be sound; some of it rotten; and the River Plate did not take fire, as expected.

The duplicate cables to Brazil and Europe, which were interrupted by the storm on Sunday last, near Montevideo, have been repaired. Telegrams are again passing as usual without delay.

We hope to see some fun come out of the announcement that our venerable Health Board means to stand no more gammon from the Junta de Sanidad at Montevideo and intends to adopt "energetic measures" against them. We infer that this must mean a declaration of war and challenge to a boxing match between the full strength of the two Boards, as we suggested some weeks ago. It's the only way to properly settle the long-standing quarrel between them.

Professor D'Amato is a patriotic pianist who has volunteered to play up the spirits of the distinguished guests at Presidential receptions and official concerts, should the new Government think of having a "rato de solaz" in the musical line now and then, for self and friends. The Professor says he won't charge a cent for his valuable services. We're passionately fond of music, especially when it costs nothing, or even half nothing.

There's another thing we like even more passionately than music, and that is a stingless bee. Only those who have made the acquaintance of a stinging bee cantruly appreciate the merits of his stingless cousin, and we learn with speechless rapture that a North American beemaster has recently turned attention to the production of "stingless bees." The coming bee ought, he thinks, to have no sting, and a longer proboscis than the ordinary bee, so as to reach down into deeper flowers after the honey. As the giant bee of India owns the required proboscis, and as there is a stingless bee in South America, it is expected that by crossing these with the ordinary bee a new variety uniting the peculiar virtues of all three can be obtained. This from our exchange; but we want to know where this stingless South American bee is to be found, as we have never met him since we came to the country. Some naturalist subscriber will perhaps favour us by taking the floor on this to bee or not to bee question.

It is excruciatingly funny to hear that the Finance Committee of Congress have resolved not to increase the salaries of Government employees. Not to increase them!! Why, men alive, the whole country expects half the clerks in question to be dismissed, and the salaries of the rest to be cut down.

The fat is in the fire about the discovery by the Prensa that, in addition to their monthly salaries of 500 shinplasters, the peripatetic "medicos" who go on board ocean steamers at Rio as "Sanitary Inspectors" and remain on board till they arrive here, are paid $8 gold per day by the companies also. The Health Board is called on to explain. The question is, why do the companies submit to this quite illegal tax on their purses.

The Handicap for the nine teams competing in the Belgrano Polo Tournament are as follows:—

Hurlingham, Santa Fe, Quilmes 1st, and Santiago, scratch.

Lomas and 2 goals, Quilmes 2nd and 3 goals.

Belgrano 2nd and 4 goals, Quilmes 3rd and 5 goals.

The order of playing to-day will be as follows:—

9.30 o'clock, Santiago v. Belgrano 2nd.
11.00 „ Quilmes 2nd v. winner of the preliminary round.
2.00 „ Hurlingham v. Quilmes 3rd.
3.30 „ Santa Fe v. Quilmes 1st.

There will be lunch on the ground each day, and tea will be provided each day. The captains of the teams are requested to have their men on the ground punctually to time. As there will be at least a hundred and twenty ponies taking part in the tournament, the suggestion has been made and acted upon to have the teams and their ponies all photographed together, and this photograph will, we understand, be reproduced in "Sport and Pastime." If successful it should prove one of the most interesting that has yet been published by our contemporary. The photograph will be taken to-day (Friday) at a quarter to two, and everyone is, therefore, requested to be ready at that time on the ground with his ponies.

Boston Girl—Tell me, my friend, do you admire Hawthorne?

New York Girl—Oh, my, yes! I think it is great! When we were at Saratoga I used to drink two big glasses every morning before breakfast.

We are glad to find the following paragraph in the Montevideo Times:—"The many friends here of Mr F. L. Humphreys, Agent of the Royal Mail Company, will regret to hear that on his way out in the R. M. S. Thames, accompanied by Mrs. Humphreys, he was afflicted with a slight attack of paralysis. However, telegrams received from him yesterday from Rio Janeiro, state that he is already much better, and that when he arrives here, next Saturday or Sunday, he hopes to be completely well again."

The same paper says:—"Official notification is published of the intended marriage of Mr. James A. Oldham to Miss Jessie M. Ritchie. We believe the marriage takes place in the last week of the month." We beg to be allowed to offer our congratulations in advance.

There will be a Cricket Match at Belgrano to-day, between Flores and Rosario Railway Club. The game begins at 11 o'clock. The following will represent the Railway:—Messrs. Bond, Ellison, Fraser, Higgins, Lloyd, Neil, Norman, Pettinger, Syer, Webb, Williams.

Unavoidably divided by the dual attractions of no mean order at the Odeon and San Martin theatres on Wednesday night, the British public, true to its generous antecedents, mustered in fair form and numbers at the latter house, many of our leading families preferring the noble cause of charity. The pit and boxes were well filled and the Benevolent Society is a gainer by $1,242. Long life to Signor Tomba and his clever troupe.

We have to announce the death of Mr. Edward Spratt, for many years chief engineer of the Torpedo Department. The funeral took place at the Tigre and was very largely attended, shewing the great respect he was held in by one and all.

The Italian cruiser Dogali is in Dock 2, and worth a visit. She is of 15 guns, 7,000 horse power, and goes 17½ knots.

The good Zoos have put on their warpaint again and are in the field against the revival of pigeon shooting which took place yesterday afternoon at Vicente Lopez. The law is on the side of the Zoos, and public opinion also; so they must win in the end.

A composer at Montevideo has written a romantic song called "I'll tuo bel core" and dedicated it to ex-President Tajes. What an idea! Are there no fair ladies in Montevideo?

In Japan men, women and children bathe "in naturalibus". On this rather ticklish subject an Englishman who has long been in that country says there is really nothing immodest in the promiscuous bathing of men, women, and children from a Japanese point of view. With them cleanliness is the object sought for, and the etiquette of the bath room differs from the etiquette of the parlour. With Europeans, he says, the attitude of waltzers is only permitted when the music is played. It is something like this with Japanese bathers. When the necessary operation of washing or doing other work requires it, to strip becomes a duty. On the other hand, a Japanese woman would scorn to appear "decolleté." To her eye our ballrooms are an astonishment, and exposure of the person for display is incomprehensible. This writer thinks that the Japanese are not excelled by their Western brethren in modesty.

The latest news from Chicago is that the watch worn by John Milton is to be seen in a shop in that city. It was made by Thuilliar in Geneva in 1670. The story told is that it was pawned in St. Louis about a year ago by the Marquis Costello de Shamer of Verona, who found himself short of funds. He exhibited a certificate of genuineness signed by the Curator of the British Museum. The watch, it is said, was made for Milton, with raised figures on the dial, so that the blind poet could read the time of day with his fingers.

Wealthy city man (who has taken a fancy to revisit his village birthplace)—"Ah, me, there is the little red schoolhouse, and yonder is the old church. How well I remember them! But the dear old familiar faces are gone; not one remains to recall those happy——" The oldest inhabitant (advancing)—"Yo're Bill Judd, ain't yet? I knew ye the minute I so eyes

THE POET'S SMILE

He worked off a smile of supreme content
As he dropped in his easy chair,
A laugh from his classical lips he sent
And he tumbled his coal black hair.

ON 'CHANGE.

Thursday, November 10th 1892.

to run like the Villarino on our South-East coast, and no steamer or even whaleboat to show for the money.

Mr. Gibbs, of Montevideo, has sold for account of the English Bank the house 150 Perez Castellanos, Montevideo, for 9,600$ gold. The Liebig factory begins work early in December. The Casa Blanca, Paysandu, do. 500 arrobes new wool in Montevideo at 28 reales.

Mr. Franzoni, of the leading brokerage firm of Berrone and Co., who is at present sojourning in Genoa, has published in the Nacion two very interesting letters, giving a full description of the Cristopher Columbus fetes there and also of the brilliant success of the Argentine exhibitors. Mr. Franzoni is one of our most popular Bolsa brokers, and his letters are read with great pleasure by all the brokers. Every line of Mr. Fronzoni's letter breathes his deep affection for the River Plate, where he is universally esteemed and respected.

The Commercial Bank of Dolores is only waiting to finish its house to open its doors and begin business. We wish it the very best success and hope to see more of these country banks started.

The Platense Co. has changed its flag, and now hoists the Argentine. We believe this step is taken in order to come under the new 'cabotage' aw.

Various lots of fine mestiza Rambouillet wool, but with "carretilla," were sold to-day at 5.80 to 6.50, and now the wools are beginning to arrive faster at the market. We have advices from Bahia Blanca announcing very large arrivals of wools there. In fact, the wool of the country around is too much for that market. They have had great rains and the camps are splendid There is still in deposit 600,000 kilos of wheat, and several lots of good Lincoln wool were sold at 7½.

The sale of 12,000 bags of wheat in Rosario is reported at reserved price.

Economy is the order of the day in our Government, and yesterday Dr. Pinedo, the popular Mayordomo, turned off the gas and allowed no gas to be lighted during the day time in any of the offices. Some of the offices, no doubt, are very dark, but it is a healthy sign to see the gas lights during the day no longer allowed. The foreign bondholders will read with pleasure the news.

The Government have thrown out M. A. Sampite's proposal to purchase three lots of State land in the Chaco. The Contadura General states that the lands in question must be put up for bids.

Orders have been given by the Minister to pay engineer Raoul Christophle $25,919.⁹⁰ for work done on the bridge over the Rio San Juan.

Passengers arrived per s.s. Potosi :—Mr. and Mrs. Gordiner, 3 children and nurse, Misses May and E. Channing, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and child, Messrs. R. E. Phillips, H. C. Foster, F. Heyworth, W. B. Phillpott, Robert Graystone, R. White, W. R. Froggatt.

To-morrow being the feast of St. Martin the Bolsa and Banks will remain closed and business will be at a standstill.

The gold market ruled dull and heavy at the second ring. Half a million dollars were sold, the premium closing at 202.90 % for Saturday, 202.50 % for the end of the month, and 201 % for end of December. Municipal Bonds went to 64 for Saturday and Patriotic Bonds advanced to 73 70. La Plata Cedulas were steady.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the second ring to-day :—

$102,500	Nov. 12th at 303-303.10-20-30	20-303-302.90.

Messrs Kelsey and Company sold today at the Central Market the following wools :—

13,000 kilos cross Lincoln with "carretilla," from Arroyo Corto, at $8.40.
56,300 kilos do do from Curumalan at $8.10.

They also sold yesterday 60,000 kilos cross-Lincoln, free of "caretilla," from Curumalan at reserved price.

The judicial auction sale of chacras and quintas in La Plata, which took place yesterday, drew an extraordinary attendance of bidders, and, judging by the prices paid when compared with the official valuation, we come to the conclusion that there must have been much more in this business than what the general public is aware of. The following are the details of the sale :—

Messrs Collet and Lambi sold yesterday the property Calle Cerrito No. 136, 17 by 35, for $50,300, the basis of the sale being $30,000%. The same auctioneers sold 5 leagues of land in the Pampa Central, at Toay, for $45,000%, which seems to us a high price for land so far out.

Yesterday Dr. Bunge, our leading city lawyer, accompanied Mr. Otto Bemberg to La Plata where they held a conference with the Provincial Minister of Hacienda, respecting the service of the Provincial foreign debt. The bases of an arrangement were drawn up and agreed upon, and we must compliment Dr. Bunge on his great success in many of these matters. He has gained for himself, in high banking circles in London, a great reputation.

Yesterday there were close on 3,000 immigrants landed in La Plata from two steamers, and there are over 5,000 on the way out.

The news from San Pedro in this province is most disastrous, and we greatly fear that we shall have the locusts here in this city. The whole country about San Pedro is destroyed by them.

Our La Plata correspondent sends us the following items :—

Nov. 9th 1892

To day has been a day of great movement in La Plata port. About midday entered almost simultaneously the fine Italian steamships Regina Margherita and the Nord America, both literally packed with immigrants, all crowded on the decks, men, women, and children. No healther sign of returning prosperity for the country could possibly be witnessed, accustomed as we have been for the past year or two to see the Italian liners leaving our shores with disappointed emigrants H.M.S. Magpie also entered about the same time and remains in port 2 or 3 days ; and H. M. S. Sirius, Commander W. M. Lang, Senior Naval Officer of H.M's Squdron on this side of the Continent, is lying in the Dock for two or three weeks for caulking and cleaning the ship. The Houlton liner Hesperides is discharging some 500 tons rail way material, which she has brought for the Western Railway. She is consigned to Messrs Pulleston and will leave for up river when discharged. The R.M.S. Trent left in the afternoon about 4 p.m. for Southampton and intermediate ports. Never has such a sight been seen in La Plata port before. Alongside the quay there was no elbow room, and people ran the risk of being pushed into the dock, so great was the crowd.

Dr. Nicolas Achaval has been named Vice-President of the Caja de Conversion, and Dr. Ramon Santa Maria Syndic of the Banco de la Nacion.

Government has resolved to suspend the Chief and Secretary of the Lands and Colonies Office pending the investigation as to their discharge of their duties.

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain : any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidence. it circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

Important Notice

is without doubt second to none in the market both as regards quality and price. It has been tried in several parts of this Province and has given entire satisfaction.

We not only wish you to try a most effective and reliable dip, but have made arrangements with a first-class Shepherd, and are, therefore, in a position to arrange contracts with Estancieros guaranteeing to keep their flocks clean from now up to Shearing Season next year.

On most reasonable terms.

This offer should be ample evidence of the efficiency of the article we offer for sale. Already we have made contracts for about 40,000 sheep.

CAMPOS

En la provincia de Cordoba—Departamento Rio Seco—15 leguas cuadradas o sean 40 591 hectareas divididas en 4 lotes tres de 4 leguas o sean de 10.824 hectareas y otro de 2 leguas o sean 8.118 hectareas, señalados en el plano de la Provincia de Cordoba con los numeros 10, 16, 15 y 14.

Campo inmejorable para ganaderia y agricultura; lindos pastos, buena tierra y agua potable y a solo 2 kilometros del Rio Dulce, y a 50 kilometros de la Estacion Argentina y a 60 mas o menos de la Estacion Selva y Malbran del ferro-carril a Santiago del Estero y Tucuman.

Con la infima base de 2 ps. la hectarea.

El Miercoles 23 de Noviembre a las 3 de la tarde en nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482 remataremos por orden terminante de su dueño estos magnificos campos, de los que tenemos las mejores referencias respecto de sus pastos al extremo de habersenos asegurado que en ella engorda mas la hacienda que en buenos alfalfares.

La circunstancia de estar cerca del Rio Dulce, de su buena ubicacion tan proxima a las Estaciones Argentina y Malbran, y de tener agua potable, favorecen mucho a estos campos por lo que reputamos infima la base de 2 pesos por la hectarea para vender.

Todo comprador sin excepcion abonara el 5 o/o al firmar el boleto.

Por planos y mas datos a nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482. Se daran un mes de plazo para escriturar.
